Sub: Road Safety ethics by Pedestrians.
Ref:No.PMOPG/D/2016/0307172 dated 20/10/2016.

Sir,

I am directed to refer your representation dated 05/11/2014 addressed to the O/o the Hon'ble Prime Minister on the subject cited above and to inform that this Department has taken up various steps for creating awareness amongst the School children's, their parents and also public in general about the road safety ethics by pedestrians emphasizing the pedestrian not to walk on the road but to walk on the footpath. Further it is also emphasize that while walking along with the children, the parents should ensure that they hold the left hand of their child on their right hand and make it a point to keep them safer side the road.

Yours faithfully,

(M.M. Pilankar)

Asstt. Director of Transport(HQ)
